

Once again the Indiana Academy of Ophthalmology will be hosting a scientific seminar for our members. The meeting will be held at the Renaissance Hotel, Carmel, IN. The meeting will be held September 22, 2023. We are excited to invite you to participate as a sponsor or an exhibitor to our re-imagined meeting. The meeting will be shorter but will provide an exciting new opportunity for interaction with our vendor partners during lunch. No more boring banquet lunch! We are planning interactive food stations throughout the exhibit area.

The Program Committee has organized an outstanding program with world-renowned faculty. This program is the ideal setting for the dissemination of the latest scientific/clinical breakthroughs, trends in practice management, and clinical and surgical developments.

This meeting will allow you to connect with the most important target market for your company's products and services. This year we expect over 85 Indiana ophthalmologists as well as ophthalmologists from surrounding states. In addition, many ophthalmic technicians will also be in attendance.

Attached you will find information regarding the opportunities to support the IAO at the meeting. To accept our invitation and secure your opportunity, complete the enclosed application and return it to the IAO office as soon as possible.

We look forward to working with you and hope you will join us in this premier ophthalmic opportunity. We look forward to an exciting and successful 2023 meeting in Indianapolis. Please contact me at 317-577-3062 if you have any questions.

Sincerely,

Kim

Rules and Regulations Special Information

1. In accordance with ACCME standards, the IAO will conduct all CME programs independently and without influence or control from other supporting organizations. Supporting organizations shall not influence or control the program planning, program content, or execution of the activity; the program must be free of commercial bias for or against any product; and any product discussion must be objective, balanced and scientifically rigorous. Corporate sponsors may not engage in promotional activities in the CME program location or in the CME materials, and no promotional materials may be disseminated during the CME activities in the CME meeting room.
2. Representatives of commercial supporters may attend an educational activity, but they may not engage in sales activities while in the room where the educational activity takes place. Please remember if you attend the physician education seminar, you MUST remove your nametag while in the room.
3. As a vendor, you are not allowed to ask questions or make comments regarding the presentations while in the meeting room. There can be NO selling or promotion by vendors in the meeting room.
4. In accordance with the AMA's guidelines on Gifts to Physicians from Industry and the ACCME Standards for Commercial Support funding from industry to underwrite the costs of CME conferences or professional meetings should be made to the IAO and not to individual physicians. Subsidies from industry should not be accepted to pay for the costs of travel, lodging, or other personal expenses of the physicians who are attending CME conferences or meetings. Subsidies for hospitality should not be accepted outside of modest meals or social events that are held as part of a continuing medical education conference or meeting.
5. Organizations that provide financial support may be recognized. Such corporate or foundation recognition regularly occurs in publications and other appropriate forums. Recognition does not include any reference to the organizational products. The institutional acknowledgment may state the name, mission and areas of clinical involvement of the company or institution, and it may include corporate logos and slogans if they are not product promotional in nature.
